Conflict Transformation and Reconciliation in Rwanda

The term reconciliation has long been associated with the field of transitional justice and is often presumed to be one of its goals. At the same time, reconciliation has been both controversial and vague as a concept, giving rise to different understandings and approaches. This paper presents possible understandings of the concept of reconciliation as well as its relationship to the field of ...

Transitional justice is the set of judicial and non-judicial measures implemented by societies to redress legacies of massive human rights abuse, including criminal prosecutions, truth commissions, reparations programs and institutional reforms.

What is Transitional Justice? | ICTJ

Transitional justice consists of judicial and non-judicial measures implemented in order to redress legacies of human rights abuses. Such measures "include criminal prosecutions, truth commissions, reparations programs, and various kinds of institutional reforms". Transitional justice is enacted at a point of political transition from violence and repression to societal stability and it is ...
